FROM YOUR DIRECTOR

BY JAN KELLEY
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

It's going to be a busy spring and summer and as we enter into the coming months there are a few "cat" things that we need to think about and be prepared to address.

First, let's talk about kittens. Cat Care Society is preparing for a busy, busy year of kittens. This is in part due to isolation and reduced services during the pandemic. Veterinarians had to slow down office visits and with stay-at-home orders, people were not able to get their pets in for spay and neuter as quickly as they, or we, would have liked. Additionally, many of our partners were not outside, walking the greenbelts and open spaces, trapping feral cats for TNR programs (trap, neuter, release).

We are already seeing our adoption rooms filling with kittens and we have a long waiting list. Kittens are always a wonderful addition to the family, but they require a lot of time and attention when they come into your home. If you are considering a kitten this spring, please set up an appointment to come and learn more about the care and support of these little friends from our staff and pick-up a new kitten resource guide.

Last year when stay-at-home orders went into effect, there was a significant increase in pet adoptions throughout the metro-Denver area and now that people are gradually returning to a more normal lifestyle – returning to full-time work, taking family vacations, having guests come to visit – owners need to have a plan to introduce these changes to their furry friends. Owners might notice behavioral changes in their cats, such as an increase in the need for attention, hiding or door darting when new people come in the house and a decrease or increase in appetite caused by the stress of schedule changes by their humans. All of these behaviors are normal but as responsible pet owners, we need to be more alert to what our pet is telling us and help them adjust to a new normal, just as we are having to do. Again, Cat Care Society is a resource for any behavioral questions.

While the stay-at-home orders were great for adoptions and finding furrever homes for hundreds of cats, it was not as easy for those still waiting in the shelter. Over the past year we had to significantly rearrange and reduce our volunteer support and closed the shelter to visitors without a scheduled appointment. These constraints resulted in less human contact and interactions, that critical daily one-on-one attention, that our cats need and crave. The CCS board of directors and staff are working on a safe and smart reopening plan that will comply with CDC, city and state guidelines. Watch our website and social media sites for new public visitation hours and please come back to visit and help us love and play with our cats.

We are continually working on plans for our 2021 event calendar and are excited to share a few teasers about what lies ahead. We are happy to announce that Catty Hour and Yoga have returned, virtually for now, but we hope to move to an in-person/virtual combined model along with outside activities and rotating indoor visits by June. We will again be celebrating "Pride Fest" through the month of June. In addition to participating in the "Pride Fest" sponsored online store, we will have our own raffle including a beautiful handmade quilt and several cat themed baskets. Again, make sure you are on our Mewsletter email list and follow us on all your favorite social media sites.

Saving the best update for last, we are excited to announce the biggest celebration at Cat Care Society in forty years – OUR FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY is in July. You have been seeing a few teasers of what is coming and I am not going to spill all the beans, but it will be a party that you will not want to miss. We are working on a historical display of cats, volunteers, adopters, and pictures which will be open for viewing on July 1. You will be able to purchase commemorative t-shirts, hats, bumper stickers and even some personalized sweet treats, all benefitting the work that we do every day at the shelter.

The summer's celebratory activity will culminate in the Tails of the Painted Cats event on Saturday, September 11, 2021. The artists have outdone themselves and I will let you in on a little secret for this year – there are dogs too! Tickets are available now, just visit the website Events page to purchase and get a sneak peek of the artwork.

Thank you for your 40 years of unwavering love and support of our cats and Cat Care Society. We have the greatest friends in Colorado!

Sincerely,

LET'S TALK ABOUT BLACK CATS

BY AMY MARTIN & SUELLEN SCOTT
VOLUNTEER MANAGER DIRECTOR OF OUTREACH

Did you know that genetically, cats are born with only two colors—black and/or red? All other coat types are variations of the two, even white cats. Other genes change the appearance of a cat's fur patterns and coloration. But genetically, cats are either red, black, or a combination of the two.

According to recent data, there are more black cats than any other color because of this "black" gene. According to scientists, the genetic mutation that causes a cat's fur to be black also could protect them from certain diseases.

There is a common belief that black cats are the least likely to get adopted in animal shelters and rescue facilities across the U.S. However, the data actually proves that while more black cats are entering shelters than other cat colors, an equally large number of them are being adopted.

Over the centuries these dark, handsome felines have endured the stigma of cultural and historical myths, superstitions, and tales. The black cat bias does still persist to this day. In a recent study psychologists examined this bias and came up with the following reasons people still shy away from black cat adoptions:

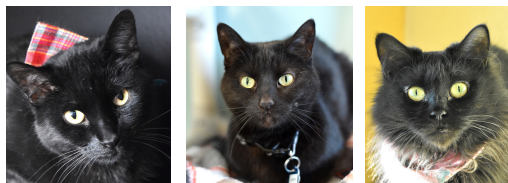

- Superstition – Black cats symbolize bad luck, associations with witchcraft or evil.
- Black cats are also seen as less friendly, less playful and more aggressive. People feel they cannot read the emotions of black cats as well as other cats and therefore think they are less approachable.
- Black cats may be more difficult to photograph, making it harder to showcase them for adoptions.

Black cats have long been associated with witches and witchcraft. The story began when a black cat was seen running into a house thought to be inhabited by a witch. During the Middle Ages, black cats became equated with black magic. Roaming nocturnal black cats were thought to be witches in disguise, witches' pets, or animal-shaped demons sent by witches to spy on humans.

Black cats have evolved into icons of anything related to witchcraft, especially during the Halloween season. It's considered bad luck if a black cat crosses your path.

Black cats are also believed to bring good luck too. In ancient Egypt, black cats were held in the highest esteem because they resembled Bastet, the cat-headed Egyptian goddess of home, fertility, and protection from disease. Black cats are considered good luck in other parts of the globe as well.

At Cat Care, we combat all these obstacles. We have a skilled photographer who creatively showcases our adoptable black cats. We create bios that highlight their wonderful personalities. Our foster volunteers socialize all our cats and kittens to help them become great companions.

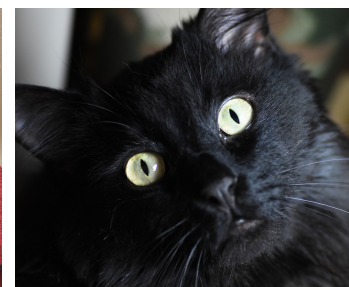

We care for all cats, and we love these beautiful, intelligent and loving personalities, just as we love all our cats and kittens.

In fact, from January 2020 to April 2021, we took in 196 black cats, both kittens and adults of all ages. Of that 196, 167 of them now have been adopted to forever homes. The majority of the remaining black cats are either in foster or medical care. That's an 87% adoption rate!

All cats, no matter the color of their fur, need forever families to love and cherish them. At the end of the day, the best reason to adopt a black cat is that they are just like every other cat. Some are sweet, some are sassy. Some are lap cats, some like to sit and watch the action. Each will have its own unique personality and temperament. Just like every other cat, black cats deserve a chance to be cared for and loved.

ISABELLA NEEDS A HOME

BY CAT MILLER

PHOTOGRAPHER/COMMUNICATIONS MANAGER

Meet Isabella! She is a very sweet girl who loves to chat with you. She loves cozy beds and meeting all humans. She is such a lovebug and is the ULTIMATE lap cat. She doesn't, however, enjoy other cats so she will need to be the only one in the home.

Isabella came to Cat Care Society after her owner could no longer care for her. She has litter box issues (possibly due to her having been declawed) that will likely not change and will need an owner or permanent foster who will be accepting of that. She also prefers dirt instead of litter as it is softer on her paws.

Isabella would love a home with a nice couple or older person where the environment is calm and peaceful and they will give her lots of love, attention, patience and comfy beds to sleep in.

If you think Isabella may be the cat for you, please visit www.catcaresociety.org/adoptions to fill out an adoption application for her. One of our adoption team members will contact you to schedule an interview and appointment to come in and meet her.

TAILS OF THE PAINTED CATS

BY JANE DORSEY

EVENTS DIRECTOR

Cat Care Society is planning to host the 2021 biennial Tails of the Painted Cats on September 11th at the Wellshire Event Center in Denver. We are sincerely hoping that, with Covid restrictions beginning to ease, by September we will be able to stage a reasonably normal event. We expect tickets to go on sale mid-May, with more details to come soon.

We have 32 cats and dogs this year, and they are preparing for their summer tour. The first appearance will be at the Lakewood Arts Council Gallery at 6731 West Colfax Avenue, next to Casa Bonita. This show will run May 2-27, and they are open 11-5 Wednesday through Sunday.

During the months of June and July, the menagerie can be viewed at the Corner Gallery, Lakewood Cultural Center at 470 South Allison Parkway. At this time, a reservation will be required to visit, but that may change as we get closer. Both of these locations will also exhibit the Flat Cat canvases. From there, we are planning to travel up to Evergreen for a mountain experience at the Evergreen Gallery on Main Street in August. For more information about this event, call Jane Dorsey at 720-221-8213.

THE CAT THAT WASN'T WANTED

BY JAN KELLEY
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

It was a Saturday morning in June 2019, a father and his college age daughter were in the Cat Care Society lobby to relinquish a cat. She had been abandoned by the daughter's roommate and had been spending her days and nights in a furnace room with just a litter box and dry cat food. The veterinary technician on duty immediately accepted the cat, no questions asked. Once the cat was in our care, tears of joy began to flow because the team knew that this cat might not make it in another shelter setting. She was morbidly obese, would need a strict diet and serious medical attention to get her back to an acceptable weight and good health.

It seemed appropriate that a cat relinquished on a warm summer day be named Lavender – and so began her journey.

Lavender was placed in a foster home for strict management of her weight. Her foster dad was diligent in her weight loss program, following the dietary restrictions and including a workout regimen, with lots of short, active play throughout the day. Slowly the scales began to tip in the right direction and the weight began to come off.

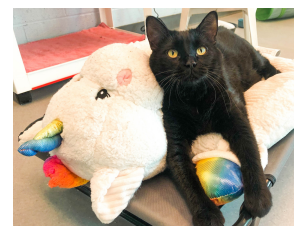

In mid-September, Lavender's foster dad was transferred out of town and she came back to the shelter. She went into a private room to manage her weight and she immediately became a staff and volunteer favorite. She was the most gentle, amicable, easygoing, kind hearted, calm cat you could imagine. With all these special qualities, she hit the road as a Cat Care Society ambassador. She went to Community Shares campaign rallies, nursing homes, schools and hospitals, and she was even the star attraction at the 2019 Snow Cat Convention. "MoShow: the Cat Rapper" took her on stage and she calmly hung out while being danced around in front of hundreds of cheering and singing spectators.

After her travels around town, her star quality created a lot of buzz and interest from potential adopters. However, she had already stolen two hearts, my husband's and mine! I brought home the big black cat on Friday, December 13, 2019, which turned out to be my lucky day!

She was loud, noisy, needy, demanding and always trying to convince us that she was starving, but she was also cuddly, loving, playful and loyal. She was adored!

Most shelters are unable to care for older cats with health conditions such as obesity, FIV, FeLV, diabetes, and more. Without Cat Care Society, Lavender might have been another statistic in the pet over-population crisis rather than a beloved member of a family. Her weight loss success and ambassador travels would not have been possible without generous supporters like you.

Here are some ways that donations help cats like Lavender find loving homes and enjoy the second chance they all deserve:

- $1,000 will support the care of four diabetic cats for a year.
- $500 covers the cost of bloodwork for five senior cats
- $250 will pay for a year of prescription food for an overweight cat
- $100 pays for two kitten health care exams and vaccinations
- $50 supports a kitten in foster care until they are ready for adoption

Thank you for your donation,

Jan Kelley

It is with heavy and broken hearts that we share the news that our beloved Lavender unexpectedly passed over the Rainbow Bridge on Sunday, April 25th, the result of a sudden illness.

Dear Sue Sioux,
Can cats drink milk?
Sincerely,
Cat Lover

Dear Cat Lover,
We cats are actually lactose intolerant, and consuming dairy products can lead to tummy troubles. Kittens have an enzyme in their stomachs that allows them to break down lactose from their mother's milk, but adult cats don't have this enzyme and we lose the ability to digest milk sugars.

THANK YOU TO 9NEWS

BY CAT MILLER
PHOTOGRAPHER/COMMUNICATIONS MANAGER

We wanted to give a special thank you to channel 9 News for having us as a regular on their Petline 9 segments.

Petline 9 highlights a pet available for adoption in the Denver Metro area and they work with several shelters to make sure those animals find their forever homes.

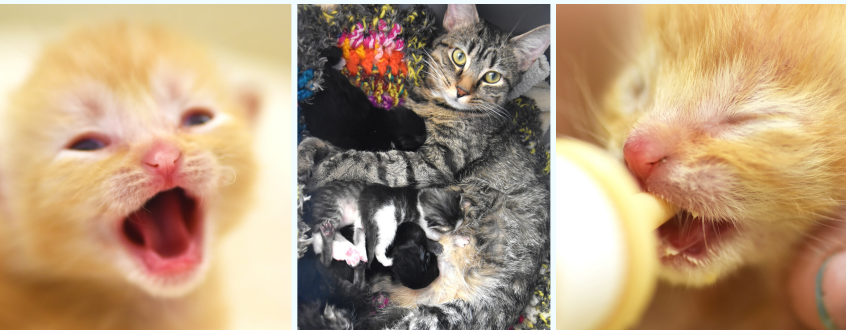

We have had several of our cats adopted through their promotions on Petline 9 and the cats always enjoy the extra attention and back scratches it brings to them.

We are excited to continue to work with them and, with their help, we look forward to finding our cats the best homes.
